Many Arrested Over Sunday

Andy Roska, an open hearth worker, was before the Burgess for being intoxicated and stealing a bolt of ribbon, tools, tacks and numerous other articles from the Woolworth 5c and 10c store Saturday night. His fine was $15.00 and costs, this being his third visit before the Burgess within a very short time. He was remanded to his cell until the fine could be raked up.

Charles Johnston was fined $1.00 and costs for being drunk Saturday night and refusing to pay for a meal at the Garibalda restaurant. Johnston sent the restaurant man the price of his supper Sunday by a police officer.

Steve Bonishi drew a fine of $3.00 and costs for being drunk and disorderly on the streets Saturday night. After the officers got Steve in the cell, he became so boisterous that his shoes had to be removed, and even then the force feared he would show a clear field by "going over the top."

Virgil Hark paid $3.00 and costs for being disorderly and drunk.

Pete Koske was drunk and asleep on the street Saturday night. He woke up in the lockup and this morning paid a $5.00 fine.

Dennis Fike, a Pittsburgh Steel iron worker, was drunk and disorderly near Twelfth and Donner at 2:40 Sunday morning. He put up a $10.00 forfeit and failed to appear. Mrs. DeMoss asked the aid of th police in keeping Fike away from the boarding house entirely.

Jas. Pavlaw was before the Burgess, charged with being drunk and fighting Saturday night. He admitted drinking but testified two other men followed him from the corner of Schoonmaker and Third street and later one knocked him down and the other kicke dhim. Mike Kobaska forfeited $10.00 as one of the men, but as the third man had not been apprehended, the case was postponed until Tuesday morning.

MONESSEN MERCHANTS LAUNCH BIG FEATURE FOR BOOSTING PURPOSES

Forty merchants of Monessen have combined in an educational campaign to stimulate home buying. The campaign will appear in the local newspapers in a page advertisement each week. A large cartoon illustrates reasons for buying at home.

W. H. Watson of the Donora American, brought the idea to the attention of the local people and it at once appealed to their business judgment. Without such a campaign, or without something similar to keep constantly before people's minds their duty to the home town, there creeps in a carelessness and indifference as to civic responsibilities. It will be acknowledged by all reasonable persons that all things being equal the town where the livelihood is earned should receive first consideration. It is important for the home people to do their part in educating the general public to the importance of leaving every dollar possible at home to build up home institutions and to create assets upon which to build improvements.

Just now while the country is in war, almost every campaign hinges upon bank deposits. If our deposits are low considering the population of the town, then we are slackers by not doing our full share toward winning the war One can readily see then, that it is not only a civic duty but a patriotic duty as well to deposit every cent of the home money in the home banks. If this is not done, the one patronizing outside banks is helping to destroy his own town and is not a good citizen.

The same applies to mercantile lines. The merchant himself sometimes gets careless about his buying and patronizes city retail stores when the same articles could be bought from a neighbor in business. This campaign is one of education. It is lacking in everything undignified and it will result in prompting people who are careless in their civic habits. Read every page and every ad on every page.

Arrested in Connection With Mysterious Murder

Jacob Levine, aged 23, was arrested in his home at Apollo yesterday, in connection with the mysterious murder Saturday at midnight of Hyman Leder, aged 53, a well known merchant.

The police admitted that they had little evidence against Levine and indicated that he would be released soon.

Leder, who conducted a fruit store, closed his store shortly after 11 o'clock and was met by his children, Ida, aged 21; Sadie, aged 18; Pearl, aged 15, and a son, Seanor, aged 12. They boarded a street car for home and the chidren say they noticed on the car two men who got off at the same street and preceded them up the street. They said that when they turned into an alley to take a short cut home the two men were about six feet in front of them.

As the Leders entered the alley, the children say, the two men turned and one of them drew a revolver and fired, the bullet entering Leder's brain, above the right eye, killing him instantly. The assailants then fled in the direction of Vandergrift. The police in Vandergrift and other nearby towns were notified of the murder and a hunt for the fugitives was started.

New Cigaret Lighter Needed

A new type of cigarette lighter is wanted immediately by our boys in the trenches. According to reports received from U. S. Marines abroad, matches are all right, if dry, but are a "dead" give-away, especially at night. Gasoline lighters are used almost entirely—but gas, it's at a premium over there.

Ambulance and lorry drivers, literally, are obliged to fight to keep the gas in their tanks. Many a driver has started his day's work to find his tank empty, or while driving, has stopped suddenly from a punctured or drained-off tank.

The boys promise a big reward for the man who gets a gasless lighter, or something similar, over to them, the only condition being that they get it quickly.

Heart Trouble Cause of Death

Deceased had been sick for quite a time, having lived at Belle Vernon until she became too feeble to longer keep house when she moved to Monessen. The funeral will occur Wednesday. The Goulding family came to Monessen about two years ago from Slippery Rock, Pa.

Lad Missing From Home Since Last Tuesday

Fred Jordan the 11 year old son of Shorty Jordan, has been missing since Tuesday of last week and friends are making every endeavor to locate him.

The lad made his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of near Pricedale, while the father boards at the Monessen hotel.

When last seen the boy wore short pants—striped, high top shoes He was four feet five inches high, heavy build, red hair, wore green or gray cap. When he left he was in company with another boy near his size, but his name could not be learned. There is no definite reason for the boy leaving home and the Monessen police department has been asked to aid in finding him.

The Jordan boy has a sister, Marie, about two years younger than he, and their step-mother died about a year ago, since when they have lived with Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, the former being employed in the railroad shipping yards of the Page mill.

Facing Serious Charge

Vincenzo Reda, an Italian, was taken to Washington Saturday and lodged in jail under $1,000 bail on a serious charge preferred by Mrs. Frank Ammon of Grandview, near Donora. The charge was preferred before Squire G. W. Boyd, on behalf of Mrs. Ammon's 10 years old daughter.

While on her way from the store, the child was stopped by Reda who offered her 30 cents to accompany him to a stone quarry. The child was harrassed for about half an hour by the Italian who would not allow her to return home. Finally the child escaped and notified her mother. Oscar Little captured Reda after a chase.

Grateful to Theatres

An appreciation of the service contributed by the moving picture theatres in opening their doors to the four-minute men with their patriotic speeches, was sent by President Wilson today to William McCormick Blair, director of the four-minute men.

"The motion picture theatres of the country," wrote the President, are rendering so substantial a service to the country in aiding the four-minute men as spokesmen of the national cause that I would not willingly fail to acknowledge the debt the country owes these theatre managers."

MANNING THE SHIPS

The shipping program was deplorably delayed by the lack of houses for shipbuilders to live in. Now let us hope there will not be a similar delay when it comes to finding the men to operate the ships when built.

The ship production will be disappointing this year. But it will be big in 1919. Where are all the seamen to come from, to man that great new fleet?

For many years the Americans have not been a maratime people. Sailors' wages were low. It was considered better policy to hire the work of water freightage done by foreigners. It has proved a costly policy. Now we have only a small element of men along our coasts who know anything about seamanship. The men that navigate the great lakes are largely farmers' boys who would be helpless with the exigencies of salt water navigation.

It is to be hoped that the government is foreseeing this problem adequately, and that it knows where it can get the help it needs to handle these ships. It is no fool job. It calls for men who not merely knew something about navigation, but they must be mentally and physically alert, to meet the dangers of the submarine zone. Also the need very good eyesight and vigorous health.

The government has trained schools for its merchant marine. But are these sufficient to train all the men needed? And are men enough being secured for this purpose? It will not be a hopeful proposition to send over the ships with their precious freights of men and supplies, unless the officers and crews are men who are used to the sea and know its moods and its dangers. It is a work that ought to appeal to young men. After the war we shall not again be left without a merchant marine of our own. There will be plenty of chance for young men to rise in the profession.

FRENCH ARE PUZZLED

Bath rooms and bathing facilities are a priceless luxury in many of the small French towns where Americans troops are billeted. In consequence hundreds of officers and men are going without their customary daily baths and some consider themselves lucky if they can get one hot bath a week. Shower baths are being installed in some place, but the demand far exceeds the supply.

An artillery major reecently was billeted in a small town which did not possess a single serviceable bath tub. While supervising the transformation of a barn into a billet, he came across a bath tub filled with potatoes. He learned it had been brought there just before the war by an Englishman, who contemplated installing it in a country home. The war interfer with his plans and the tub was stored in the barn. The owner of the barn converted it into a storage bin.

After some persuasion the major bought the tub and had it cleaned and set up in his billet. Running water was an impossibility, but by heating a large kettleful each morning the major has been able to obtain sufficient hot water for his morning bath.

When the owner of the barn learned the major took a bath each morning he commented on the "funny ideas of those barbaric Americans." Other American officers in the same town have learned of the major's discovery and the bath tub is now working on a full-time war basis.

FRIENDS RECEIVE FLAG

Charleroi friends are in receipt of a portion of a United States flag, sent from Schell City, Mo., by Capt. Tom Middleton, of Charleroi, who was on the wrecked troop train which jumped the rails near that city. The flag was evidently displayed on one of the coaches which was wrecked as about half of the emblem had been torn away, while holes were torn in the portion of the emblem received in Charleroi. On the flag were inscribed the names of all the boys from this end of the country who were on the train from Donora, Monongahela, Charleroi, as well as from Monessen and Smithport, Pa. Capt. Middleton had inscribed on the banner, "All well—none hurt." A letter mailed at the same time, and which is supposed to be on the way east promises to give more details of the accident.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 0c and 25c a box. All druggists.

GOOD-BYE DOLLAR.

EVERY dollar you send out of town flies away with a value that rightfully belongs to your community. Spend it at home with your home merchant, where its value stays with you and helps to build up your interests. When you come to think of it, there are only two kinds of dollars—the "Dollar with Wings" and the "Development Dollar." The "Dollar with Wings" goes to build up the Far Distant City, the Big Metropolis, with its vice and crime and low wages and poverty. The "Development Dollar" goes to build up the Home Town. It helps build up a nation of real men and women. Then, let us make the dollars we spend "Development Dollars," home-town builders, building for us and our neighbors and our children, making our community more prosperous, more happy, more contented.

Good Seed Corn

Owing to the great shortage of good seed corn we are asking each farmer to test his corn. If the test runs better than fifty per cent., we advise you to make an ear test to supply your own needs.

We feel that it is important that every farmer test his corn this season because from tests run on 50 samples of what was considered the best corn in that many different communities, the average test is only 42 per cent. Many samples of very good looking corn failed to grow entirely. To get a poor stand of corn this year when we need it most and when labor is so high means a great loss to you as well as to the nation.

In case you find that your corn will not grow and you have not arranged for your seed, you can get good seed corn from the following parties. Mr. Paul H. George, Greensburg, or Mr. Stephen Solack, Latrobe, R. D. No. 1. In case their supply is exhausted when you get to their place, get in touch with the Westmoreland County Farm Bureau and we will arrange to take care of your needs.

Potatoes are Stored

According to the estimates made by officials of the State Department of Agriculture, Penn-sylvania farmers still have in storage over ten million bushels of potatoes or practically one-third of last year's crop. County representatives were instructed recently to learn the number of bushels held by the growers in their respective districts and from these figures the total for the state has worked.

The condition, it is said, was brought about by the extremely cold winter, impassable roads and the hope of many growers for higher spring prices. Many times during the fall, Secretary of Agriculture Patton and members of the Bureau of Markets urged the farmers to dispose of large portions of their crop, but in the majority of cases, they refused.

MEN TO THE RESCUE

E. L. Hibbs has been appointed chairman of a special men's committee to speed up the work of collecting second hand men's clothing for the Red Cross. Mr. Hibbs got down to business right away and already has enlisted the support of a number of prominent lodges. Up to Saturday night the women had contributed four times as much material as the men which is a rather unenviable record for the sterner sex. "Take 'em off and hand 'em over" is Mr. Hibb's slogan and he promises to put the men in the race before next Saturday night.

The Milanese HAT

has just arrived. This hat is made right in MILANO, ITALY, so this gives you sufficient understanding that it is an imported item.

Mr. Ansaldo, owner, personally states that he uses the highest grade of Felts and Colors in order to make it the Enemy of Water, or the Mistreater of an Article.

No matter how many different New Ways you see a Hat worn, the high grade quality of Felt that's in it, will give that pleasure to shape it according to ways worn, and back in its normal, without any effect on the Felt. You will see no wrinkles on it as long as you own it. The water can not run it out of shape. When you happen to be caught in the rain just dry it, imagine your hands are the Blocks; talk to it, and it will obey, because it understands.

Local Food Inspection

Assistant Food Administrator, for Monessen, Frank Venneri, is hard at work on his new job, and is out today looking over the field and giving aid to all who need assistance or do not understand the laws and requirements.

Conditions are said to be critical in Europe, and the ruling now is that more meat may be used than before to save the wheat. The normal consumption has been about 18 pounds per person per month, but soldiers are now getting only a 12 pound allowance. More acute restrictions must be made in various ways, and Food Administrator Hoover in a speech says in part:

"In order that we shall be able to make the wheat exports that are absolutely demanded of us to maintain the civil population and soldiers of the allies and our own army, we propose to supplement the voluntary cooperation of the public by a further limitation of distribution and we shall place at once restrictions on distribution which will be adjusted from time to time to secure as nearly equitable distribution as possible.

"With the arrival of harvest, we should be able to relax such restrictions. Until then, we ask for the necessary patience, sacrifice and cooperation of the distributing trades."

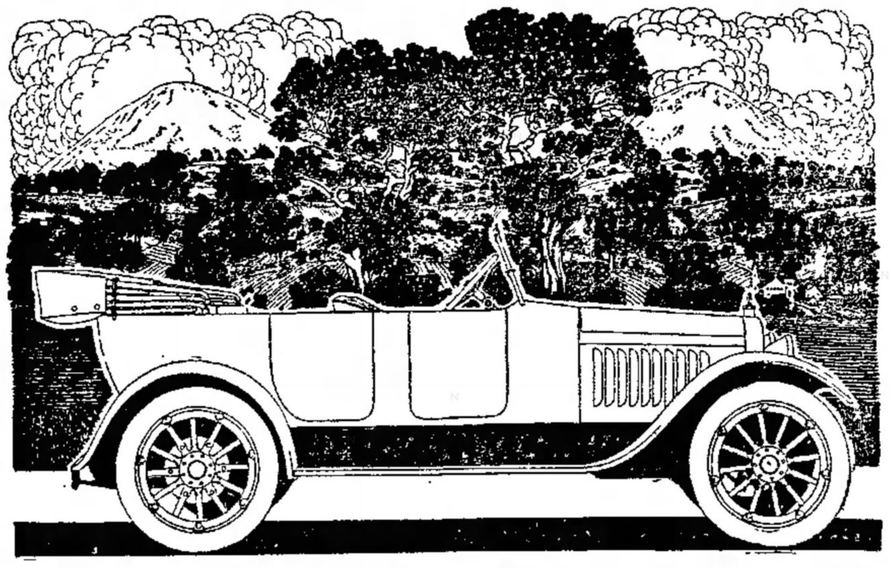
Expose German Spy System

An engine that wrings from gas more power than was ever taken out of gas before—through its "Hot-Spot" and "Ram's-Horn" Manifold—Chalmers devices.



Tests of exhaust vapors have shown weaknesses in many engines. By such tests you can always tell how good an engine is.

In the great Chalmers engine so very little in the way of unused or unburned gas comes out of the exhaust as to be almost negligible. The gas is used up—all of it—in the Chalmers.

The moment it passes from the throat of the carburetor it strikes the now noted "Hot-Spot" where it is heated and "cracked-up" and then rushed on to the combustion chambers via the "Ram's-Horn" Manifold.

When the spark touches it off there is translated a power such as a gas engine has never known; all the brute force imaginable, yet tamed down into a softness that is as smooth as deep water.

Once you play with it with your right foot you will be amazed at the thrill it'll give you.

The Devil Stone

How many people are there in this partially enlightened world who still shudder at the appearance of a black cat in a storm? Educated as we are in the fallacies of the superstitious beliefs of our forefathers, we still preserve some of the relics of superstition which cast a spell of gloom over commonplace occurrences. The sinister influences of an ancient superstition have a great part in the story of "The Devil Stone," the latest Artcraft release, produced by Cecil B. deMille with Geraldine Farrar as the star, appearing at the Star theatre today. It

Announcement of Liberty Loan

Liberty Loan legislation and the controversy over war machinery reorganization are the engrossing topics before Congress this week.

Announcement today by Secretary McAdoo of size and terms of the bills of new war bonds is to be followed by House consideration of the bill, whose passage is desired within the fortnight intervening before the new Liberty Loan campaign.

The fight over war organization promises to be opened in the Senate early this week. Senator Overman of North Carolina, author of the measure to give the president wide powers for reorganization, has given notice that he will call it up immediately after disposal of the Indian Appropriation Bill, which Senate leaders plan to pass today. Determined opposition is expected from several prominent Democrats as well as Republicans.

The contest over increasing the government guarantee for wheat to $2.50 a bushel also promises to be settled this week.

Work on army legislation is to be resumed today in the Senate in a further effort to clean up pending measures. Interest centers on the War Department measure, extending the selective draft registration to men reaching 21 years of age after June 5, 1917.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and [illegible] which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the clear healthy bloom in your cheeks, to have your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, foul breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.
